The fuel for Interoperability
The Present of MLE’s
MLE’s are dead! Long live PLE’s!?
No, MLE’s get additional requirements
Open architecture
Open standards
Open source software
Open University

All learners should be able to shape their own PLE’s
First steps to get more open?

For the Audience …

• To what extend should MLE’s open up themselves?

• MLE’s are dead long live the PLE’s?

• Institutions have to present their self in social systems like del.icio.us and facebook?

• Change the current business model towards a knowledge broking also to other resources?
